I was stopped at the red light at 79th Ave SE on 20th St SE, headed westbound. (Lake Stevens)

The light turned green. I didn't get moving fast enough to avoid being hit from behind. I was already moving when I got hit.

The other driver told me she had looked down and didn't see ~~me~~ that she was getting too close to me.

It felt like a hard hit. My car has a lot of damage.

The light was green and I saw the lady in front of me so I slowed down but she had not started to go fast enough or start proceeding thru the light and I accidentally rear ended her. My front ~~brake~~ brakes did not respond very well when I pushed on them. I've never caused an accident before so I'm very upset at my carelessness.
